NAGE TO PRESENT NEW FALL MENU

Washington D.C. - Nage Restaurant, an upscale casual eatery from Rehoboth Beach, DE, opened a second location in downtown Washington D.C in March 2006. Located at 1600 Rhode Island Ave NW on Scott Circle, Nage provides bistro fare steeped in French-style cooking that uses global flavors.

Nage is owned by Chef Kevin Reading and Restaurateur Josh Grapski. Reading, and Grapski bring over 15 years of restaurant experience each, taking reverse paths to get to this point. Reading, a graduate of The Restaurant School in Philadelphia, started in the dining room and made his way back to the kitchen, while Grapski, a graduate of Cornell University's Hotel School, started in the kitchen and ended up in the dining room. "We met during both of our transitions 8 years ago", explains Reading. "We have been friends since."

As for Nage, it has become known as a foodie place in the Delaware beach resort town. "Our focus is twofold. Our food passion – producing the highest quality foods with a creative approach and guest enjoyment – making sure our guests have an experience that exceeds their expectations", says Grapski. "We want the overall experience and the food to be the focus -- what dining is all about."

"We try to provide our guests an opportunity to explore and enjoy different foods while at the same time providing them with an approachable and comfortable atmosphere. We want our guests to enjoy the total experience", adds Reading. "We strive for a neighborhood feel where the establishment and our staff have great relationships with our guests."

Joining Reading and Grapski is an experienced management team. General Manager Galen Johnson heads up the operational team while Gray Rollin (Chef De Cuisine), Dave Hamer (Sous Chef), provide over 40 years of culinary experience.

Nage Restaurant offers lunch Monday-Friday and dinner, seven days a week. Located in the Marriott Courtyard Embassy Row on Scott Circle, Nage accepts reservations at (202) 293-8005. You can also find more information at <http://www.nage.bz/>
